Main field of study

Musical Performance

Entry requirements

Approved admission test for Master Programme in Music Performance, Specialisation: Conducting, as well as knowledge equivalent to the course Musical Performance - Conducting 3 (E7007G).

Selection

The selection is based on 30-285 credits

Course Aim

The Master's programme in music performance focuses on four interacting perspectives, all of which aim to put one's own music performance in a context:

- Interpretation
- Analysis
- Tradition/Innovation
- The public interaction

This course is a continuation of Music Performance - Conducting 3 and aims for continued development of the set goals.

During the course, the student shall have:

- acquired advanced knowledge, skills and working methods to be able to independently study and perform music as a conductor
- acquired advanced knowledge about, performance practices and a sense of style
- learned to view him- or herself in a historical context where the musical heritage and its values provide a possibility of being a tradition bearer and innovator.
- matured in his/her own artistic integrity through critical examination of music as a form of expression, its traditions and values.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

In the skill training of gestures and conducting techniques, parts of the teaching take place with the help of a rehearsal pianist.

In choir conducting, the student works with the Master's choir every Master week.

In orchestra conducting, the student participates in a production with professional symphony orchestra and students from the composition class.

Other weeks than "master weeks" can be considered in dialogue with the student.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided. Every teaching session constitutes an examined presentation of assigned tasks.

The examination of the course takes place in final concerts/productions.

In choir conducting, the student conducts a concert and recording with the Master's choir.

In orchestra conducting, the student rehearses and conducts a concert with works from the composition students written for and performed by a professional symphony orchestra.

In the conducting assignments that the student has must with according to consultation with the teacher, following will be assessed and graded: Gestures and beating technique, methods to learn scores, rehearsal methods and communication with ensemble/choir and sense of style.

For the grade of Pass with credit (Väl godkänd), the student must have demonstrated very good musical and conducting skills in the examinations.

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term "unauthorized aids" refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETKS educational administration eduetks@itu.se, not later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
