Contents

Based on the company, the course takes an international perspective on corporate governance and the area's multidisciplinary nature. The course deals with key concepts and theories, and the board's as well as various stakeholders' impact on corporate governance. In addition, existing institutional and legal arrangements are analyzed, as well as similarities and differences between different systems and the most common national regulatory methods.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

Teaching and learning takes place through lectures, self-study, seminars, quizzes, and project work. The course is given in English.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided. The exam examines the ability to:

- Explain the main theories in the field of corporate governance
- Analyze different types of corporate governance perspective including both national and organizational differences
- Demonstrate the application and use of main theories in the field of corporate governance

The written report examines the ability to:

- Compare the research and practical aspect of corporate governance
- Demonstrate the application and use of main theories in the field of corporate governance
- Critically analyze and evaluate the use of corporate governance theories, mechanisms and regulations
- Prepare and orally present audience specific information on a corporate governance relevant topic
- Independently evaluate and develop own and fellow students' work

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term "unauthorized aids" refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETKS educational administration eduetks@ltu.se, no later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
