Entry requirements

In order to meet the general entry requirements for first cycle studies you must have successfully completed upper secondary education and documented skills in English language

Selection

The selection is based on final school grades or Swedish Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Examiner

Anders Odenstedt

Course Aim

By the end of this course, the student shall be able to:

- describe the main features of Western philosophy from ancient Greece to approximately the year 1900
- relate some of the issues discussed in the history of philosophy to more modern discussions
- show basic argumentative and interpretative skills relating to problems in the history of philosophy

Contents

The course provides a basic overview of central problems and figures in the history of Western philosophy. Examples of figures presented by the course are Plato, Aristotle, Descartes, Leibniz, Hume and Kant. Emphasis is placed on philosophical understanding and not on the biographical or historical context of ideas.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

The teacher-controlled tuition consists of lectures and seminars.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided. Assignment report.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETS educational administration eduets@ltu.se, no later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.

The following courses (comprising 7.5 credits each) are recommended for deeper studies in philosophy: F0001S, F0002S, F0004S (mandatory) and F0005S (mandatory).
