Entry requirements

In order to meet the general entry requirements for first cycle studies you must have successfully completed upper secondary education and documented skills in English language

Selection

The selection is based on final school grades or Swedish Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Course Aim

Students shall, after completion of the course, be able to identify and explain essential historical contexts from a global perspective, the 1700s to the world war and subsequent world political transformation of the 1900s. For further clarification about what this means, see under "Contents" below.

Contents

This course provides an overview of global history from the revolutions of the 1700s to the world war and subsequent world political transformation of the 1900s. After completion of the course, students shall be able to identify and explain in particular;

- The four revolutions: the scientific, the spiritual (the Enlightenment), the industrial and the American..
- Nationalism and its impact on development in Europe, Asia, Africa and America.
- The French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars.
- Colonialism and the emergence of the modern imperialism.
- The two World wars.
- Interwar period.
- The Cold War and the development to present times.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided. Student skills (mainly set up under "Contents" above) are examined through a written final exam. The course awards the grades pass with distinction (VG) pass (G) or fail (U).

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term “unauthorized aids” refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETKS educational administration eduetks@ltu.se, not later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
