Contents

The essay topic is chosen in consultation with the supervisor. Choice of subject, theory, method, material, etc. specified by the student in written memoranda that are discussed with supervisors and other students at seminars. The essay is written independently and individually and is defended at a final seminar where the author also acts as an opponent of other students' essays.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

The teaching consists of tutorials and seminars. The essay is written individually with the support of a supervisor. The tutorial is carried out both individually and in groups. The seminars include both memoranda and, finally, complete essays.

Some parts of the course realization may be in English. The thesis may be written in English.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided.

The course is partly examined through participation in seminars (2.0 ECTS). Partly through an individual written essay (13.0 ECTS).

E-registration of the essay is also required according to LTU's rules. The work must be completed no later than 12 calendar months after the course has formally ended. The student can only count on further supervision 6 calendar months after the course has formally ended.

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term "unauthorized aids" refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETKS educational administration eduetks@ltu.se, no later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
