In order to meet the general entry requirements for first cycle studies you must have successfully completed upper secondary education and documented skills in English language

Selection

The selection is based on final school grades or Swedish Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Course Aim

The student shall obtain the following abilities: Accomplish competent juridical analysis including the capacity of identifying legal problems and finding solutions within the areas of employment law.

Contents

Part 1 The course introduce the student in the employment law legislation and legal employment praxis are also covered. Special knowledge is given to the regulations concerning employees, employee protection and work environment questions. The remainder of this section deals with other employment law legislation such as laws for leave and salary security, representation laws, discrimination law, and public employment laws. Part 2 The student writes a report in an employment law area.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

Instruction consists of lectures, seminars, exercises and report writing.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided. Written exam (part 1). Written memorandum and written opposition (part 2).

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term "unauthorized aids" refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETKS educational administration eduetks@ltu.se, not later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
