Selection

The selection is based on final school grades or Swedish Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Course Aim

After the student is examined from this course the student can identify and solve basic juridical problems. The course gives the student fundamental knowledge of legal source materials and the judicial system's structure.

Contents

In the beginning of the course the student gets an introduction of legal sources and the legal system's framework as well as an introduction to legal problem solving methods. This course gives an introduction in contract law, family law is covered afterwards. Other judicial areas dealt with are compensation law, real estate law, procedural law, criminal law, market law, administrative law, employment law and association law which include the regulations collaboration in different company forms.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

Instruction consists of lectures, seminars and exercises.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided. A written examination is given at the close of the course.

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term "unauthorized aids" refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETKS educational administration eduetks@ltu.se, not later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
