Contents

This course explores the theory and practice of international organizational behaviour and the application of the principles of management within a cross-cultural context. Furthermore, the course deals with issues of communication across cultures, motivation, leadership, decision-making, negotiation, and gender equality. It also discusses how human resources in different regions of the world can be organized in cross-cultural teams.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

Lectures, seminars, individual assignments and group assignments. The course is given in English.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided.

Course aims 2, 5 and 7 are examined through a discussion seminar
Course aims 1, 2, 3 and 6 are examined through individual written assignments
Course aims 1, 4, 5 and 6 are examined through project work.

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term "unauthorized aids" refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves or contact ETKS educational administration, eduetks@ltu.se not later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
