Contents

The course is an advanced course in industrial organisation (or industrial economics) and covers topics within imperfect markets. Different oligopoly markets are analysed and compared to monopolies and competitive markets. In addition, market power is defined and analysed as well as different strategies affecting market structures such as price discrimination, marketing, mergers, investments, capacity utilisation and technical change.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.
Lectures.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided. A written examination.

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term “unauthorized aids” refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.
