Contents

In the artistic knowledge base component, artistic processes are studied from both theoretical and practical perspectives.

In the music history component, the role and function of music in society is studied from a historical and contemporary perspective. The component includes studies of a reflective and performing nature.

Realization

Each course occasion's language and form is stated and appear on the course page on Luleå University of Technology's website.

The artistic knowledge base component is taught in the form of group lessons and seminars.

The music history component is taught as group lessons and seminars.

Students in the specialisations Jazz, Rock and Studio Musician study jazz/rock music history.

Students in the specialisations Classical Musician, Composition and Church Musician study classical music history.

Examination

If there is a decision on special educational support, in accordance with the Guideline Student's rights and obligations at Luleå University of Technology, an adapted or alternative form of examination can be provided.

Examination is by means of written assignments, oral presentation and practical demonstration.

In order to pass the course, the student shall

- be able to demonstrate acquired knowledge and perform assignments in accordance with the course objectives.

Unauthorized aids during exams and assessments

If a student, by using unauthorized aids, tries to mislead during an exam or when a study performance is to be assessed, disciplinary measures may be taken. The term "unauthorized aids" refers to aids that the teacher has not previously specified as permissible aids and that may assist in solving the examination task. This means that all aids not specified as permissible are prohibited. The Swedish version has interpretative precedence in the event of a conflict.

Remarks

Students must register for the courses themselves, or contact ETKS educational administration eduetks@ltu.se, not later than three days after the quarter commences. Failure to do so can result in the place being lost. This rule also applies to students with a guaranteed place.
